Gourmet Café & Market Coming to the Davidson Arts District

Davidson, NC (October 23, 2007) – Campania Café & Italian Gourmet Market is coming to Davidson’s South Main Street Arts district. The cafe & market will be located in the well-known “Ice House”, the former site of the historical Davidson Ice & Fuel Plant and will feature casual dining, serving breakfast, lunch and dinner, Monday through Saturday. The café will serve pastries, pasta dishes, panini sandwiches and other entrees. The market will present Italian specialty foods, olive oils, wines, cheeses, dried meats, pastas, coffees, and assorted gift baskets. Bakery goods, such as Italian cheesecakes, cookies and pastries, and espresso coffee will also be available. The back room will host banquets, large parties and private events.

Chef/owner, Vincent DiGiorgio, has over 15 years experience in the culinary field. Vincent earned his culinary degree from The Institute of Culinary Education in New York. His culinary experience ranges from an apprenticeship in Rome, Italy to NY City area restaurants and catering companies. He has decided to move south to pursue his own business and open Campania Café and Italian Gourmet Market. Vincent is “excited to share my passion for authentic Italian food” with the residents and visitors of the Lake Norman region.

Campania is scheduled to open in early 2008 at South Main Square, located at 416 South Main Street, Davidson adjacent to the new Seaweed Designs gallery. For more information visit www.southmainsquare.com
