GRAND OPENING OF VILLAGE TACK SHOP IN SOUTH MAIN SQUARE

Davidson, NC (November 2, 2007) – For the past ten years, the Village Tack Shop in Davidson has served equestrians as the rider's connection to the community. The Village Tack Shop, formerly operated by the Bizzell family, has been sold to Jayne Wallace Champion. Jayne and her family have been loyal customers of the Tack Shop. They share a strong equestrian tradition and look forward to expanding their product line and serving the community. The grand opening of this newly renovated store is Saturday, November 10th with events and specials.

The new store is bringing in all new inventory including English, Western and Saddleseat clothing and equipment. Additionally, through her other business Wallace-Hill, she will offer exclusive equestrian related designs in custom metalwork. Stall doors, gates, tack room fixtures and whimsical furniture. Other changes include the addition of horse trailer rental, etc.

The store is located at 428C South Main Street, South Main Square, in the Davidson arts district. For further information call 704-895-4240 or visit www.southmainsquare.com.
